

sales assistant

Right Information is technology company delivering engineering and software services. We combine technical knowledge, data, algorithms and software development to create solutions and help our customers improve their products and sales processes.

Our company culture and working conditions are most important drivers to get our business to next level. Motivated and experienced team of engineers, designers and managers working in clear and transparent process allow us to deliver solutions made for the future.

Be part of our team and help us creating international sales team working with companies in Europe. You will create and maintain database with key decision-makers, support sales team by cold-calling and send information about products and services to arrange meetings.

Contact us:

E-mail: maciej.puchala@rightinformation.pl

Telephone: 71 716 50 97

www.rightinformation.pl

Location: Wroclaw, Poland, Schedule: Full time

Remote: No, Travel: No

Responsibilities:

- Screen internet to prepare database of key decision-making persons
- Reach and contact key people
- Prepare and send information about IT products and services
- Strong cooperation with the whole company
- Achieving plans based on defined KPI's

Requirements:

- Self-motivated, self-driven person
- A perfect command of written and spoken English, Swedish is a plus
- Determination and consistency
- Great computer skills
- Customer service skills as a plus

We offer:

- High independence and flexible hours
- Competitive salary
- Progression opportunities

join our team

create solutions used worldwide

Think big

We always try to think big and we create solutions for the future. Projects developed by our teams are powerful tools for our customers' businesses, and help them learn more about their products and improve selling processes worldwide.

Work comfortably

Flexible hours, great atmosphere and comfortable workplace allow us to be effective and engaged. We all care about our lives, families and we enjoy what we do.

Learn from experienced people

We value professional growth. With our attitude, we learn more and go further with our goals. We understand how important sharing the knowledge is, that's why we meet, learn and discuss. You'll always get a helping hand.